This will also provide an impetus to get the Working Group together to focus on the implementation of the Narcotics study's recommendations, to include a SIG(I) meeting.
- At the request of [] we will be briefing RADM Richard Cueroni, USCG, and new director of NNBIS Miami, on 8 May at 0900. We will brief him on the CIPC organization and particularly the Narcotics study. If your calendar permits, a brief visit with you would be advantageous.
- Arrangements have been made for him to pay a courtesy call on C/HUMINT, similar arrangements are being offered to C/COMIREX and C/SIGINT.
- [] will be our representative at a Soviet CC&D meeting on 4 May, which is being hosted by []
- [] CT tour was scheduled to conclude on 11 May. However, because of his direct involvement and contributions to the China study, we have made arrangements to keep him on until the end of the month--25 May. This is with the concurrence of his Branch Chief in OGI.

Terrorism: []

- [] met with the Terrorism Working Group last Tuesday, 24 April and garnered comments on the fourth draft of the Working Group's report. They subsequently met individually with State and CIA to assure that their concerns were handled as well as possible. A final draft was prepared over the weekend and [] personally distributed them Monday (previous reliance on courier service had proven ill-founded). It is possible that DO may footnote sections of the study that enhance the role of the NIO--which DO perceives would be done at the expense of the DO role. We will know definitely by COB Wednesday, 2 May, when final comments are due back.

China Study:

- CIPC staff rewriting of the initial consolidated draft report continues. Eighty-five percent of the work necessary to produce a revised draft of minimal acceptable CIPC standards of quality is complete. The revised draft will, when completed, be circulated for a second round of Working Group comment and critique. It is anticipated that the large majority of the negative comments received on the initial draft will have been accommodated in the revision.
- The technology transfer section of the China study has been rewritten. It is half its original length, and once it is polished, will be ready for incorporation into the study, as appropriate.
